Panel and discussion: eScore, an evolving format

In response to the enthusiastic reception of the in-person panel on controlled digital lending of eScores during the IAML 2023 Congress in Cambridge, this event will bring together representatives from the music library, publisher, and eScore service provider communities with the goal of facilitating constructive discussions around eScore as an evolving format. Participants will be invited to weigh in throughout the session.

Duration: 90 minutes

Moderator: Houman Behzadi, Head Librarian, Marvin Duchow Music Library, McGill University

Panelists:

- Stephanie Bonjack, Music, Theatre & Dance Librarian; Head of Collections, Materials Management & Cataloging Section, University of Colorado Boulder
- Dr. Norbert Gertsch from Henle, representing the publisher and the Henle app
- Bill Sherfey, Regional Sales Manager, Harrassowitz
- Philip Ponella, Wennerstrom-Phillips Music Library Director, and the director of music information technology services at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music
- Matthew Vest, Music Inquiry and Research Librarian, UCLA Library
